

LEGISLATIVE NOTES.

Bill to Prevent Discrimination by Telephone and Telegraph Companies.

Another effort to separate the management of the Knight-Telegraph and Telephone Companies.

The City Hall and Market House bill was read in the Senate and referred to the Committee on Cities.

It was but a little Senate that met yesterday afternoon, there being not more than twenty-five members present.

The report of the Senate committee on Mr. Jameson's bill was concurred in yesterday, and the bill ordered engrossed.

Hon. William H. Carroll, of Blackford, has been appointed Judge of the Forty-Eighth Judicial Circuit, composed of the Counties of Grant and Blackford.

A Sentinel credit in the Jeffersonville Times would add to its "Legislative Notes," and at the same time show what paper they are reproduced. When the Times clips this column for reproduction, we trust this item will not be left out.

The Lieutenant Governor announced yesterday that he had appointed Montgomery Bennis of Perry County, and Harry H. Hays of this city, judges for the special session, their appointment to date from Monday next. George Ross and Harry Fritz are continued in the same capacity.

The Senate yesterday afternoon adopted the House concurrent resolution allowing the Grand Hotel proprietors $650 for committee rooms. Mr. Mayes could not see the justice of paying $166 for the use of a room for the Knight-Telegraph Investigating Committee, and the House resolution allowing that sum was referred to a committee.

Senator Winter has introduced a bill to prevent discrimination by telephone and telegraph companies, and prescribing a penalty of $100 when such discrimination is made. The measure seems to have grown out of the refusal of the telephone company to place an instrument in the B. and O. telegraph office except upon certain discriminating conditions.

The bill which is designed to legislate John M. Goar and Superintendent White out of their respective offices in connection with the Knight-Telegraph Soldiers' Orphan's Home and Asylum for Feeble-minded Children will no doubt be reached next week, and its passage is sure to follow. This measure and the Appropriations bill are the most important now waiting the action of the General Assembly, though there are a large number of bills upon the calendar which have not been disposed of.

Senator Johnson, of Tippecanoe, is still yearning to have the Soldiers' Home and Asylum for Feeble-minded placed under separate management. He introduced a resolution yesterday, asking for the appointment of a committee of three from each House, to investigate the matter and make report thereon. The resolution was referred to the Committee on Benevolent Institutions.

Senator Johnson calling for a division, but withdrawing the motion when he saw that a count would develop the fact that no quorum was present.

COURT-HOUSE LOCALS.

An Injunction Suit Involving Over $100,000 Worth of Property—Disposition of Suits in the Courts.

Andrew Jensen was declared insane yesterday.

Judge Norton yesterday heard part of the evidence in the case of John W. Poe, charged with assault and battery with intent to kill, and continued it till to-day.

In the suit of Louisa Giron vs. Charles Giron the jury in Room No. 2 returned a verdict for plaintiff, giving her $148.40 damages. This was a suit to recover the value of a back.

"Squire Felbman is trying an assault and battery case, the defendant being Mrs. Evans, and the prosecuting witness Mrs. Koehler. The matter grows out of a dispute over the right to heat iron for laundry use by the kitchen fire. The parties are employed at the Ray House.

In the suit of Samuel Parsons vs. Center Township under instructions of the court the jury in Room No. 2 yesterday returned a verdict for the defendant, finding that personal injuries sustained while driving over a bridge, and the court ruled that under the statute the township is not liable.

Attorney Pringle is testing the right of an attorney to garnish certain money in the hands of third or fourth parties. He was attorney in the suit of Mary Ullery vs. Berry Randall to establish the paternity of a child. Randall was released on bond, his mother being the surety. Pringle now wants to hold money in the hands of Berry Randall's company. His fee is $50. "Squire Smock has the case.

The prisoners indicted by the Grand Jury were arraigned yesterday before Judge Norton. All entered pleas of guilty except Charles Hardin, who admitted having stolen some tubs. He tried to convince Judge Norton that he did not know the character of a certain house of bad repute, and because this was rather transparent, the case was held over to obtain the evidence of witnesses.

The Berkshire Life Insurance Company, of Massachusetts, yesterday filed a voluminous complaint against the Indianapolis National Bank, Henry Tutwiler, Trustee, George H. Carter, Sheriff, and others, for injunction. The complaint sets out that in December, 1875, E. S. Alvord mortgaged lot one and part of lot two in square eighty-seven to the Thames Loan and Trust Company, to secure the payment of $10,000, and afterward he mortgaged the same premises to the same company to secure $15,000 borrowed money. In April, 1880, these mortgages were assigned to plaintiff for $25,194.44. In 1881 Alvord mortgaged this and other property to plaintiff to secure $28,973.54, besides other sums paid by plaintiff on judgments against him amounting to more than $50,000. All of these debts were merged into one and secured by mortgage, Alvord giving a note due in ten years for $150,000. The mortgage debt is wholly unpaid except $30,000, and the rents and profits are not sufficient to pay the interest on the remaining $80,000. It is also alleged that Tutwiler, as Trustee, began a suit in 1876 to foreclose a mortgage made by Henry W. Sheets and others, and in the following year he obtained judgment for $13,663.74, and decree of foreclosure, and afterward he took a judgment against Alvord personally for $1,240.84, and issued execution thereon. Tutwiler assigned this judgment to the bank, defendant herein, but it is alleged that this was a security for a pre-existing debt, and that the bank paid Tutwiler nothing for the judgment. Afterward the bank ordered the Sheriff to sell the real estate above described, and in accordance therewith the Sheriff has posted notice of the sale on the 14th (to-day). Plaintiff claims the judgment for $1,240.84 was erroneously taken, and that Alvord is not only insolvent, but a non-resident of the State of Indiana. Among other things it is alleged that part of the property involved in these complications is that donated by Alvord to the School Commissioners, on which the present Public Library building is located. Prayer is made for an order restricting the defendants, the bank, Tutwiler and the Sheriff from disposing of the real estate conveyed by Alvord and wife to this plaintiff, and that the bank and Tutwiler be ordered to enter upon the proper records of the court satisfaction of the judgment and all other proper relief.

"FANTASMA" AT THE GRAND.

"Standing Room Only" was the placard displayed at an early hour at the Grand Opera House last night, and there was but little of that. The Hanlons' wonderfully clever spectacular pantomime, "Fantasma," has made a hit here, and could run a week. It is the best thing of the season and has "caught on" immensely with everybody.

One of the best things in it is in the second act, where the Fairy Queen discloses a number of beautiful tableaux representing the charms of love, of the Bacchantians, of wealth and luxury. Beautiful girls appear under a shower of flowers and vainly try to entice the heart of the lover, who is seeking his lost sweetheart. These charming pictures are followed by others of an amazing nature. Little girls, five or six years of age, altogether the most charming figure in these pictures; her face is a delightful study for an artist, her poses are beautiful, and she is altogether ingenious and interesting.

Another incident of the programme is the sword combat between Sig. Pastoralini and four antagonists. The man holds a sword in each hand and performs a feat in swordsmanship that is wonderful for its dexterity and the great physical power displayed. The four men assault him at once, and he succeeds in carrying the blows of all of them. Louis Fizzarello given an exhibition of violin playing, that is, in its way, as remarkable as the sword combat. He holds the bow in his mouth and plays "The Carnival of Venice," or holds it under his legs and dances to the music of the violin.

"Nell Gwynne" was put on last night and played to a fair house. As "Nell Gwynne," Miss Thompson does some fine comedy acting. She dresses and acts the part in a meritorious manner. Miss Edna Courtney also acquits herself creditably; there is a bright and merry glow in this lady, if artistic talent and handsome face and form are a criterion to judge by. Mr. Craig is a clear-headed and a painstaking actor, but at the present time he is laboring under a disadvantage. "Jane Eyre" will be played at the theatre this afternoon, and "East Lynne" this evening. Both plays are standard attractions, and the company is well qualified to present them satisfactorily.

NOTES.

Matinee at the Zoo to-day at 2.

Alvin Joslin next week at English's.

"Fantasma" matinee at the Grand to-day at 2.

This is "children's day" at the Dime Museum.

Charlotte Thompson "Jane Eyre" matinee at English's to-day at 2.

The Dime Museum and Zoo continue to delight large audiences.

John Gilbert, the "only Leon," Frank Cushman and Johnnie Rice, have recently been added to the "Cold Day" Company.

The transformation scenes at the end of each act of "Fantasma" rival those of "Excelsior" and the "Naïad Queen" in magnificent splendor.

Governor Gray was one of the delighted spectators in the audience at the Grand night before last. He, like everybody else, says "Fantasma" is the grandest spectacular piece ever produced here.

Miss Kate Davis, the handsome and talented leading lady of the "Fantasma" company, made a great hit last night with her song, "Sweet Genevieve." She has a voice of wonderful range, and is also a clever comedienne.

The sale of seats for the engagement of James Arthur's "Cold Day" Company at the Grand the first three nights of next week, opens this morning at the box-office. A special programme will be given on St. Patrick's Day for the benefit of the Emmet Guards.

The comedians, Robson and Crane, will present the following repertoire here next week: Thursday evening, "Sharps and Flats;" Friday, "The Cherubs;" Saturday evening, "Our Bachelors;" and Saturday evening, "Our Boarding House." The entire series of performances will be for the benefit of the Light Infantry.

The Sentinel wants to fully and heartily endorse the following taken from a recent issue of a Cincinnati paper: "Percy C. Mayhall is the name of a little Englishman who acts as manager for the Hanlons, and is thoroughly English in every way. But such an Englishman, unlike the generality of the importations from the old country connected with the profession, he is modest to a fault, and has a heart in him like the English you read of in the days of chivalry. Oh, he is a rare one, and all diatribe to low his pleasant face and gentlemanly self. It's such men that serve to lift the profession from the degrading level it has been so often placed on. He leaves for England at the expiration of the 'Fantasma' season. He takes with him our best wishes."

He Wanted to Take a Nap.

And old gentleman, whose name could not be learned, at an early hour yesterday morning walked into the office of Dr. Bigelow, which was open, with the intention of taking a nap. Fearing that he would take cold the old gentleman attempted to start a fire in the stove. One of the occupants of the building, which is situated on North Illinois street, saw the man in the room lighting sheets of paper from the gas jet, and thinking he intended to burn the house down, called lustily for the police. Charging to the scene Patrolmen Bruce and Schaefer and a number of citizens. The old gentleman was removed from the building and quietly restored once more.

Crushed by Machinery.

Jefferson Egbert, of 373 Lafayette street, while at work at the Excelsior factory on the Big Four Road, yesterday morning, was caught in the machinery and terribly hurt. The flesh of his body was terribly mangled between two cog wheels, his ribs were crushed and he received internal injuries. Dr. Hodges was summoned as soon as Egbert was removed to his home, and although he did what he could to relieve the wounded man's sufferings he was compelled to admit that there is but a small hope of his recovery.

Advice to Mothers.—MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer at once. It produces natural, quiet sleep, by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, alays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhoea, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle.
